

REPLICATE EXPLAINED

Each Email address must be unique and is for the sole use of the program. Statistics on all hospitals or on a specific hospital can be run at head office immediately. Head office is an automatic backup of all hospitals data although it is recommended that each hospital has its own backup. Data entry validity per hospital can be instantly checked at head office and the offending hospital can be immediately notified of invalid or incomplete data or if performance issues needs to be discussed.